

Salem Electoral Board Canvass

November 9, 2022

11am

19 East Clay Street

Attendees: Zach Agee- Chair, Stave Smeltzer- Vice Chair, Katherin Elam-Secretary, Dana Oliver-Director of Elections.

The committee reviewed all provisionals that were in the office of Elections prior to 11 am, this initial number was 65 provisionals that were examined individually by precinct and the back of each envelope for the reason that the voter chose provisional.

The remaining canvass was the review of all tapes and write-in votes from the scanners and Statement of Results per precinct.

Election night numbers from Salem indicate that Ben Cline is winner of the House of Representatives race against Democrat Jennifer Lewis. Salem City Council results show the following candidates with the top to the lowest number of votes:

Hunter Holliday 3,809 votes

Randy Foley 3,397 votes

John Saunders 3,386 votes

Ann Marie Green 3,196 votes

The numbers indicate that 11 votes separate Foley and Saunders.

The Canvass ended at 1:15pm until next Monday, November 14 when all numbers will be certified.

Respectfully Submitted,

Katherin A. Elam

Katherin A Elam, Secretary

Zach Agee

Zach Agee, Chair

Steve Smeltzer
Steve Smeltzer, Vice Chair